FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JEFFERIES TO HOST 9th ANNUAL GLOBAL HEALTHCARE CONFERENCE IN LONDON

LONDON, October 17, 2018 - Jefferies today announced that it will host its ninth annual Global Healthcare Conference in London on 14 and 15 November.

Tommy Erdei, Joint Global Head and European Head of Healthcare Investment Banking at Jefferies commented, "The Jefferies Global Healthcare Conference in London is the premiere corporate and institutional healthcare conference in Europe and an exclusive forum for corporate leaders and strategic investors to meet and discuss partnering opportunities. Last year, Jefferies hosted over 400 participating companies, 1,800 attendees and 4,000 business-to-business and investor meetings. The continued success and scale of this event reflects Jefferies' deep commitment to serving clients in the healthcare sector."

This global gathering of leading healthcare executives and institutional, private equity and venture capital investors from across the pharmaceutical, pharmaceutical services, biotechnology, generics, consumer health, animal health, medical technology, healthcare services and healthcare IT sectors, will also include company presentations, thematic panel discussions and small-group meetings, and feature leading public and private companies from North America, Europe, Africa, Middle East, Latin America, Russia, India, Israel, China and Japan.
